Spa-Like Sanctuaries and Sumptuous Bathrooms with Breathtaking Views in Prestigious Residences

By: Iana Sheremetieva

Impressions: 13,000

Hotels and spas have long been synonymous with opulent, expansive bathrooms adorned with exquisite design elements and breathtaking vistas. Nevertheless, a new wave of luxury developers has astutely recognized the yearning of residents for a personal haven resembling a spa-like retreat within the confines of their own homes. As a result, they have ingeniously crafted sumptuous bathrooms that boast panoramic city views, seamlessly merging indulgence and urban beauty.

Penthouse A at 378 West End Avenue

378 West End Avenue is an exquisite new condominium nestled in the heart of Manhattan's Upper West Side. Meticulously crafted by COOKFOX Architects and developed by Alchemy Properties, this architectural masterpiece seamlessly blends timeless elegance with modern sophistication. With over 11,000 square feet of thoughtfully designed amenities, residents of 378 West End Avenue are treated to an unparalleled living experience. Every detail has been carefully considered to provide a sense of grandeur and comfort. Among the 57 residences, each one stands out with its generous proportions and opulent materials. The harmonious interplay between classic elements and contemporary design creates an ambiance that is both captivating and welcoming.

One of the crown jewels of this exceptional development is Penthouse A – an expansive five-bedroom, five-bath + two-half bath residence that encompasses a remarkable 6,169 interior square feet. Complementing its vast indoor space, the penthouse also boasts an impressive 1,334 exterior square feet, featuring two balconies and six terraces. These outdoor areas provide the perfect backdrop for enjoying breathtaking views and soaking up the vibrant energy of the city. Ascending to the second floor, you'll discover the primary suite, a sanctuary of luxury and tranquility. The primary bath indulges the senses with radiant heated marble floors, a freestanding soaking tub, and a custom white oak vanity adorned with marble countertops. Every fixture is meticulously chosen, featuring sleek polished nickel and stonework fittings by Waterworks. As you gaze out of the big picture window, the sweeping south views of Manhattan unfold before your eyes, offering a captivating panorama of the cityscape.
